

Nancy Linehan: My name is Nancy Linehan, and my mom has been at Azalea Gardens since March of 2019. Well, she had been in an independent living community, but she is on her [00:00:30] journey through dementia and she was in need of assisted living and the memory care services that Azalea Gardens can provide. I feel very good about having her here. She is as calm as she can be, given the stages of her dementia. She is taken very careful care of medically and physically and emotionally too. They provide a lot of good activities [00:01:00] for her to take part in if she chooses. The food is excellent. It is very good.

Luis Serrano: Our mission is to provide the seniors in our community with a safe and happy place to call home. We strive to provide a quality environment for them where they can succeed in making friends and becoming part of our family. The attributes that better define us are people, passion, and excellence. People because [00:01:30] our staff is what makes the biggest difference in the lives of our residents. The passion and dedication that they exhibit every day on a daily basis with our residents is unmatched. And excellence, that is the criteria that we have to provide all our services, all the things that make the resident happy and feeling among family in our community.

Stephen Eatman: When residents come to us, it's typically because something in their life is challenging them holding on to their independence. So what we try [00:02:00] to do is offer amenities that allow them to keep their independence, but make their lifestyle a lot easier. So that's our all day dining program, that's our 24 hour dedicated staff, transportation, all these other things that are going to help them keep their independence longer.

Nancy Linehan: Her health, her peace of mind, the people who are working [00:02:30] with her show every day that they care about her. The staff here at Azalea helps you walk through this journey with your loved one. It is so very helpful. She is calm here. She is happy with the care that she's getting. Once again, people seem to walk from the heart here. She's in a good place. [00:03:00] She's really good place. So we're very pleased with that.
