

Georgene Gallig...: My name is Georgene Galligan. I've lived at Creekside Pines for two years and I'm 89 years old. My favorite part of living at Creekside Pines is the atmosphere about the whole place. The social aspect [00:00:30] of it. Everyone just is very congenial.

Luis Serrano: Our mission is to provide the seniors in our community with a safe and happy place to call home. We strive to provide a quality environment for them, where they can succeed in making friends and becoming part of our family. The attributes that better define us are people, passion, and excellence. People because our staff is what makes the biggest difference [00:01:00] in the lives of our residents. The passion and dedication that they exhibit every day, on a daily basis with our residents, is unmatched. And excellence, that's the criteria that we have to provide all our services, all the things that make the resident happy and feeling among family in our community.

Stephen Eatman: When residents come to us, it's typically because something in their life is challenging them holding onto their [00:01:30] independence. So what we try to do is offer amenities that allow them to keep their independence, but make their lifestyle life easier. That's our all day dining program, that's our 24 hour dedicated staff, transportation, all these other things that are going to help them keep their independence longer.

Peggy Robertson: The most important thing to me probably was that she had independence, but yet she wasn't [00:02:00] on her own. Everybody was so friendly. When I came to visit the first time they all said, and people that lived here said, "Oh, you're going to love it. She's going to love it."

Georgene Gallig...: There's something to do all the time if you want to. You have your own home, you have your own way of doing things and you can keep on with this sort of thing. I think it's great myself.
