

Eunice Kehl: My name is Eunice Kehl, and I'm 92. And I lived at Fountain Crest 10 years, and I love it. Well, there's a lot to do, play bingo, [00:00:30] and we go shopping, and we have movies.

Vicky Kehl: I mean very few people that come here ever want to leave. It lets them stay younger longer. It keeps them active, and they feel good. You know, instead of being alone in a home, here, they seem to have everything.

Eunice Kehl: The staff is wonderful, every one of them.

Luis Serrano: Our mission is to provide the seniors in our community with a safe and happy [00:01:00] place to call home. We strive to provide a great environment for them, where they can succeed in making friends and becoming part of our family.

The attributes that better define us are people, passion, and excellence. People because our staff is what makes the biggest difference in the lives of our residents. The passion and dedication that they exhibit every day on a daily basis with our residents is unmatched. And excellence, that's the criteria that we have [00:01:30] to provide, all our services, all the things that make the resident happy and feeling among family in our community.

John Kehl: Living by yourself as compared to living with a place where there's other people, they can check on you besides just the family members. The security factor of it, they shut the doors at night, and you don't get in unless you have a card.

Stephen Eatman: When residents come to us, it's typically because something in their life is challenging them holding on to their independence. [00:02:00] So what we try to do is offer amenities that allow them to keep their independence but make their lifestyle a lot easier. So that's our all-day dining program. That's our 24-hour dedicated staff, transportation, all these other things that are going to help them keep their independence longer.

John Kehl: The surroundings, as far as Fountain Crest, it's nice because there's so many shopping centers close by, Publix, Winn-Dixie, all the food markets, [00:02:30] banks, churches. Everything's, probably, from this location's, within a five to 10-minute drive, doctor's offices, and the hospital.

Vicky Kehl: It's a secure feeling, and it's a good feeling. And we feel so good that Mom has this security.
