

Beulah Byrd: My name is Beulah Byrd and I'm 92 years old. I've been here about a year.

Melanie Byrd: [00:00:30] Well, after having looked at several other places, it seemed the best suited for my mother's needs and it was a good size. It was not too large, not too small. I kept coming back here. I just liked what I saw. I liked the way I was treated.

Stephen Eatman: [00:01:00] When residents come to us, it's typically because something in their life is challenging them holding onto their independence. So what we try to do is offer amenities that allow them to keep their independence, but make their lifestyle a lot easier. So, that's our all day dining program, that's our 24 hour dedicated staff, transportation, all these other things that are going to help them keep their independence longer.

Luis Serrano: [00:01:30] Our mission is to provide the seniors in our community with a safe and happy place to call home. We strive to provide a quality environment for them, where they can succeed in making friends and becoming part of our family. The attributes that better define us are people, passion and excellence.

Luis Serrano: People because our staff is what makes the biggest difference in the lives of our residents. [00:02:00] The passion and dedication that they exhibit every day, on a daily basis with our residents, is unmatched. And excellence, that's the criteria that we have to provide all our services, all the things that make the resident happy and feeling among family in our community.

Melanie Byrd: I'm very pleased that she's here and I've said this before, but it's... I can leave here and know that my mother [00:02:30] is safe and know that she's looked after and I don't worry about her. I have peace of mind as far as her being here.
