

Laurel Swaggart: My name is Laurel [Swaggart 00:00:13]. And my mom's been coming here off and on for about a year.

Yeah, we chose Stone Valley for the location. It's a memory care facility; my mom needs [00:00:30] that. We just liked how clean it was. They seemed very friendly, and it just felt right.

Luis Serrano: Our mission is to provide the seniors in our community with a safe and happy place to call home. We strive to provide a quality [00:01:00] environment for them, where they can succeed in making friends and becoming part of our family.

The attributes that better define us are people, passion, and excellence. People, because our staff is what makes the biggest difference in the lives of our residents.

The passion and dedication that they exhibit every day, on a daily basis with our residents, is unmatched. And excellence: That's the criteria we have to provide all our services. All the things that make the resident happy [00:01:30] and feeling among family in our community.

Stephen Eatman: When residents come to us, it's typically because something in their life is challenging them holding on to their independence. What we try to do is offer amenities that allow them to keep their independence, but make [00:02:00] their lifestyle a lot easier.

That's our all-day dining program; that's our 24-hour dedicated staff; transportation; all these other things that are going to help them keep their independence longer.

Laurel Swaggart: I just had my mom for a week; [00:02:30] taking care of her myself; and it's hard work. I know the staff here pays close attention to them. They're friendly. They get three good meals a day. They get music, they get activities. Yeah, I feel really good about it.
