

Speaker 1: Windsor Heights Assisted Living and Memory Care in Beechwood is among the first local senior living communities to enroll in the CDC's national COVID vaccine program. CDC partnered with CVS and Walgreens to provide free-of-charge onsite vaccination clinics at senior living communities all across the country as soon as the vaccine is approved and becomes available.